The information was delivered in a clear and concise manner.

- No chance to really ask questions and clear up confusion
- Some terms I didn't understand, like tax credit
- What's next?
- Would like to have known how much $ will be saved if we do a restructure - II
- Environment lent toward a comfortable experience
- Well run, smooth
- Little direction
- I think you got the outcome you wanted
- Please get accurate info to the public (ie) class size
- Well prepared
- No insight on "real dollar" decisions that are in play
- Moved quickly and efficiently
- Audience questions should be repeated for all to hear
- I understood most of the info
- Nice to hear people speak out
- Agree, but it's a current perception of possibilities, not a reality

I was satisfied with the quality of the materials and/or handouts.

- Teachers' salaries were misinterpreted; shown as too high (class sizes posted on wall were wrong) - III
- Especially Auditor General report
- Great info; High quality; excellent - IIIIIII
- I would have liked to see data on take-home pay (teachers, admin, etc)
- Itemized budget would help understand current reality – IIII
- Some info seemed biased/misleading – II
- Would have been helpful to get agenda in advance – II
- Poor representation of district money that could be cut

I learned something new.

- ... from students – II
- ... from table members and listening to their ideas – III
- ... from my peers and different stakeholders
- Collen answered some of my questions at my table
- I learned many new things, and in a fun, interesting manner
- I didn't know the pulse of concern of community until today
- I gained more insight on issues
- We have a lot of educated people in this room
- Transparency does exist at the district office
- I wasn't fully aware of the majority of these issues
- I didn't know tax credit was open until 4/15
- I learned that good people have good ideas and not all are what I would pick
- This administration has no ability to lead
- Exciting to be with so many people who really care about education
- I learned about the schools budget and costs for everything

Please rate your overall satisfaction with this session.

- You underestimate your audience; manipulative
- Wish we could have shared more and cleared up misunderstandings
- Great way to meet people with various opinions; wonderful cross-section of the community - IIII
- Final decisions seemed funneled; little out-of-the-box thinking - II
- Never enough time... Make more opportunities for suggestions/comments
- Enjoyed the table discussions; though disheartening if top admin isn't open to new ideas
- It was a difficult task done well
- Nice; Entertaining; Great job; Great process; Great idea; Glad I came - IIIIII
- Weak moderator
- I feel the board already has a plan and this event was just to show they provided an opportunity for input
- Our board member only wanted to talk and not listen - II

- Our group had trouble getting along at first; aggravating
- Provide more opportunities like these - II
- Make sure the newspaper covers this great event!
- There was clear bias in the room
- Student's presentation seemed rushed
- Satisfied with how open everyone was
- No real answers
- My table worked well together; we have productive discussion, people were positive
- I feel like our great conversations are not going to be honored
- I hope everything is recorded so everyone can see the outcome
- Highly informative, educational session – really opened my eyes; fantastic to be a part of this – II
- Do we need to address money/revenue now or in the long-term? Both?
- It's time for the Board to be decisive

Other comments:

- Re-structure admin - II
- What is the timeline for any future decision? II
- I'm still upset that questions from the October forum remain unanswered; Dave needs to lead by example - II
- Our leader, Mr. Lykins, deserves a raise
- I think restructuring is going to cost us more lost students; needs to be researched - II
- Why have 80 parents pulled their kids? What about exit interview results?
- The term "current reality" is getting old; we get the ten-year decline
- I wish all 5 board members would attend. Why does 1 always miss?
- Need to address corruption in legislature regarding private schools and funding
- I still don't feel heard as a parent. There should have been a Q/A session. Stop deflecting and take responsibility.
