

What does it mean to be a "Highly Qualified Teacher"?

We encourage you to become familiar with the Arizona Department of Education website.

For information on what it means to be "highly qualified", go to www.ade.az.gov.

In the search bar type in, Highly Qualified. This will bring up great information, to help you better understand the highly qualified mandates put forth by the Arizona Department of Education.

Also, review the Teacher Certification section of this webpage often, to keep you up to date on certification issues.